LUXURIOUS

Ballroom

design Samuele Mazza

The distinguishing personality of Ballroom, the collection by Samuele Mazza is opulent anti-minimalism, the dreams and contamination which have always, and not only now due to market demand, been the stylistic hallmark of the designer. Mazza presents a strongly evocative chandelier perfectly worthy of the Sicilian Il Gattopardo set on the island where the designer was born. Ballroom is also reminiscent of, and contaminated by, Florence the city which strongly influenced the source of the designer.

Jardin de Verre

design Alessandro La Spada

Jardin de Verre S18

The Jardin de Verre collection by Alessandro La Spada has a totally different flavour boasting design and art items which speak for themselves to tell their own story.
A love story between man and nature, the tale of a nineteenth century English Doctor, Nathaniel B. Ward, who was passionate about botany.
Observing the metamorphosis of a chrysalis closed in a jar with a handful of earth, Ward discovered that seeds and spores not only germinate but survive for years.
