Sospesi nel tempo

Ma il tempo è ciclico: una storia di eterni ritorni?
Oppure è lineare: una freccia sparata dal buio fondo del passato agli abissi incandescenti del futuro?
Importa davvero stabilirlo? La risposta è no.
Anzi NO, tutto in maiuscole.
L'estetica contemporanea, pixellata e in streaming continuo, è fatta di compresenze, innesti, inaudite congiunzioni.
Tradizione e innovazione, ornato e linearità, semplificazione e decoro,
percepiti una volta come categorie inconciliabili,
sono oggi direttive che si intersecano, creando nuovi, eccitanti scenari nei quali
presente e passato si sovrappongono.
Classico non è più l'opposto di moderno.
Semplicemente perché il moderno, quando è veramente tale, cattura lo spirito dei tempi sublimandolo in un segno atemporale, dunque classico; e così il classico,
in quanto fuori dal tempo, è moderno.
La conciliazione degli opposti è il valore.
Un progetto riuscito rompe il ciclo in una sintesi:
è sospeso, al di sopra e al di fuori del tempo.
Masiero ne è la prova.

MASIERO®

Suspended in time.

What about time: is it cyclical, an eternal comeback?
Or is it linear, an arrow propelled from the darkness of the past to the bright abysses of the future?

Is there really an urge to define? The answer is no. NO, all in capitals.

Composed of a copious amount of pixels in endless streaming, contemporary esthetic relies on simultaneous presences,
crossings, challenging conjunctions.
overlap creating new, exciting scenarios
in which past and present are one.

Classic is not anymore the polar opposite of modern,
simply because modern, when it really is modern,
catches and sublimates the zeitgeist in a timeless sign which is intimately classic; classic, on the other hand, when timeless, is resolutely modern.

Conciliation of opposites is a value.

A successful project breaks the cycle in a synthesis suspended above and out of time.

Masiero offers proof.

Suspendus dans le temps.

Mais le temps est cyclique : serait-ce une histoire d'éternels retours?

Ou bien est-il linéaire: une flèche lancée
du fond obscur du passé jusqu'aux abysses incandescents du futur?

Est-il vraiment important de le savoir? La réponse est non.
Ou plutôt NON, en majuscules. L'esthétique contemporaine, pixellisée et en streaming constant, est faite de coprésences, greffes, conjonctions inouïes.

Tradition et innovation, ornements et linéarité, simplification et noblesse, jadis perçus comme des catégories inconciliables, sont aujourd'hui des lignes directrices qui s'entrecoupent, créant de nouveaux scénarios excitants où le présent et le passé se superposent.

Classique n'est plus l'opposé de moderne.

Tout simplement parce que le moderne, quand il l'est vraiment, capture l'âme des temps l'élevant en un signe atemporel, donc classique ; ainsi le classique, hors du temps, est moderne. La conciliation des opposés est la valeur.

Un projet réussi rompt le cycle en une synthèse: il est suspendu, au-dessus et hors du temps.

Masiero en est la preuve.

In der zeit schweben.
Doch die Zeit ist ein Kreislauf: eine Geschichte der ewigen Wiederkehr?
Oder sie ist geradlinig: ein aus dem tiefsten Dunkel der Vergangenheit in die glühenden Abgründe der Zukunft abgeschossener Pfeil?
Ist es wirklich wichtig, das festzulegen? Die Antwort ist nein.
    Oder besser noch, NEIN, in Großbuchstaben.
Die zeitgemäße Ästhetik, aus Pixeln und in kontinuierlichem Streaming, besteht aus gleichzeitiger Anwesenheit, Einfügungen, außerordentlichen Verbindungen.
Tradition und Innovation, Schmuck und Geradlinigkeit, Vereinfachung und Verzierung,
    einst für unvereinbare Kategorien gehalten,
    sind heute Leitlinien, die sich kreuzen,
und neue, aufregende Szenarien schaffen, in denen sich Gegenwart und Vergangenheit überlagern. Klassisch ist nicht mehr das Gegenteil von modern.
Einfach deshalb, weil das Moderne, wenn es das wirklich ist, den Geist der Zeit einfängt und ihn in einem zeitlosen, und damit klassischen Ausdruck veredelt; und so ist das Klassische, da es außerhalb der Zeit liegt, modern.
Die Bedeutung liegt in der Aussöhnung der Gegensätze.
Ein gelungenes Projekt unterricht den Kreislauf in einer Synthese:
    es schwebt, steht über und liegt außerhalb der Zeit.
    Masiero ist ein Beweis dafür.

Suspendidos en el tiempo.
Pero, ¿el tiempo es cíclico: una historia de eternos retornos?
¿O es lineal: una flecha disparada desde el oscuro fondo del pasado a los abismos incandescentes del futuro?
¿Realmente importa determinarlo? La respuesta es no.
    Es más NO, con mayúscula.
La estética contemporánea, pixelada y en flujo continuo está hecha de concomitancias, acoplamientos, uniones inauditas.
Tradición e innovación, adorno y linealidad, simplificación
y decoración, percibidos un tiempo como categorías irreconciliables hoy son directrices que se cruzan creando nuevos y excitantes escenarios en los que el presente y el pasado se superponen.
Lo clásico ya no es lo contrario de lo moderno.
Simplemente porque lo moderno, cuando lo es realmente, captura el espíritu de los tiempos sublimándolo en un signo atemporal y por tanto clásico; y de este modo lo clásico, en la medida en que está fuera del tiempo, es moderno.
    La conciliación de los opuestos es el valor.
Un proyecto logrado rompe el ciclo en una síntesis: está suspendido, por encima del tiempo y más allá de él.
    Masiero es la prueba.

E C'È TUTTO. IL PASSATO, IL FUTURO E LO SCAVARE DENTRO LA MENTE PER PORTARE ALLA LUCE QUELLO CHE È DENTRO DI NOI, MA CHE NON ABBIAMO MAI VISTO.

Non è facile guardare avanti verso il futuro, eppure la linea Masiero in qualche modo anticipa forme di design che sono ancorate al passato, ma guardano verso il nuovo.

E' una ricerca di linee nuove che si intrecciano, sovrappongono, oltrepassano lo stile più classico, ma senza mai negare la continuità e le proprie radici. Lampadari in stile "minimalista" con tutto quello che il termine significa a partire dagli anni '60 in poi.

Minimalista è la sobrietà della forma che nel suo essere scarno vuole solo mostrare ciò che è.

Ma minimalista è anche tutto quello che inevitabilmente l'oggetto ci comunica e tutto ciò che noi vogliamo vedere nell'oggetto. Minimalista sembra la negazione dell'arte e pare che quasi tutti noi, con un po' di fantasia, sia possibile eguagliare se non fosse che i "codici"

del minimalismo hanno tale complessità e particolarità -rispetto ad esempio al linguaggio puramente figurativo- che solo ore di lacrime e sangue possono generare. E i "codici" non si colgono a colpo d'occhio, ma con l'intuizione della mente, di categorie concettuali: "cose che voi umani non potreste immaginarvi".

Cose che chi ha penetrato i segreti del futuro non può comunicare perché il futuro non ci appartiene.

Ma la linea Masiero riesce a comunicare perché lega e salda il futuro col passato e il passato ci è dentro.

E' la lampada al laser nel tinello marrone del Dr. Freud nella Vienna di inizio '900.

E c'è tutto. Il passato, il futuro e lo scavare dentro la mente per portare alla luce quello che è dentro di noi, ma che non abbiamo mai visto.

MASIERO®
ECLETTICA

It is not easy to look to the future, but somehow the Masiero line is in the vanguard of new designs that are rooted in the past but look ahead. It is a research into new lines that interweave, overlap and exceed the most classic of styles without ever denying continuity and their roots. Minimalist lamps, with everything the term has meant since the beginning of the 60s. Minimalist means sober forms which in their simplicity show all of themselves, but minimalist is also everything that the item communicates and everything we want to see in it. Minimalist seems the negation of art and it seems that all of us, with a bit of imagination, can equal it if it were not for the fact that the minimalist "codes" are extremely complex and peculiar – with respect to the purely figurative language for example – that only hours of tears and blood can create. The "codes" are not grasped at a simple glance but through mental intuition and conceptual codes: "things that you humans could never imagine". Things that whoever has penetrated the secrets of the future cannot communicate to us, because the future does not belong to us. But the Masiero line gets the message over because it ties and welds the future to the past and the past is inside us. Laser lamps in Dr. Freud's brown bath in Vienna at the beginning of the 20th century. It is everything. Past, future and digging into the mind to bring to light whatever is inside us but which we have never seen before.

Il n'est pas facile de regarder vers le futur, et pourtant la ligne Masiero anticipe en quelque sorte les formes de design qui sont ancrées dans le passé, mais qui regardent vers le nouveau. C'est une recherche de lignes nouvelles qui s'entrelacent, se superposent, dépassent le style le plus classique, sans toutefois jamais nier la continuité et ses racines. Des lustres dans un style « minimaliste » avec tout ce que ce terme signifie à partir des années soixante. Minimaliste signifie la sobriété de la forme qui ne veut dans son essentiel que montrer ce qu'elle est. Mais minimalist est aussi tout ce que l'objet nous communique inévitablement et tout ce que nous voulons voir dans cet objet. Minimaliste semble vouloir dire négation de l'art et que presque tous ceux d'entre nous peuvent, avec un peu d'imagination, l'égalier, si ce n'est que les "codes" du minimalisme sont tellement complexes et particuliers – par exemple par rapport au langage purement figuratif – que seules des heures de larmes et de sang peuvent en dériver. Et les « codes » ne sont pas compréhensibles en un seul coup d'œil, mais avec l'intuition de l'esprit, de catégories conceptuelles : "des choses que vous humains ne pourriez vous imaginer." Des choses que ceux qui ont pénétré les secrets du futur peuvent pas communiquer parce que le futur ne nous appartient pas. Cependant, la ligne Masiero réussit à communiquer parce qu'elle lie et soude le futur avec le passé et le passé est à l'intérieur de nous. C'est la lampe au laser dans le cabinet marron du Dr. Freud dans la Vienne du début du XIXe siècle. Et tout est présent. Le passé, le futur et la capacité de creuser dans l'esprit pour porter à la lumière ce qu'il y a en nous, mais que nous n'avons jamais vu.

Es ist nicht einfach, nach vorne, in die Zukunft zu blicken. Und doch nimmt die Linie Masiero irgendwie Designformen vorweg, die in der Vergangenheit wurzeln, gleichzeitig aber auf das Neue ausgerichtet sind. Eine Suche nach neuen Linien, die sich verflechten, überlagern und über den rein klassischen Stil hinaus gehen, ohne jedoch jemals die Kontinuität und ihre Wurzeln abzuleugnen. Lampen im "minimalistischen" Stil, mit all dem, was der Begriff seit den 60er Jahren bedeutet. Minimalistisch ist die Schlichtheit der Formen, die in ihrer nüchternen Art nur das zeigen will, was sie ist. Doch minimalistisch ist auch all das, was uns der Gegenstand unweigerlich mitteilt, und all das, was wir in diesem Gegenstand sehen wollen. Minimalistisch scheint die Negation der Kunst, und es sieht so aus, als ob wir es ihr fast alle, mit etwas Fantasie, gleichtun können, wenn sich die "Regeln" des Minimalismus nicht – im Vergleich zur rein figurativen Sprache – durch eine derartige Komplexität und Besonderheit auszeichnen würden, dass sie nur durch lange Stunden des Tränen- und Blutvergießens geschaffen werden können. Und die "Regeln" erfasst man nicht auf einen Blick, sondern dank der Intuition des Verstandes, der begrifflichen Kategorien: "Dinge, die Ihr Menschen niemals glauben würdet". Dinge, die uns von denjenigen, die glauben, die Geheimnisse der Zukunft durchdrungen zu haben, nicht übermittelt werden können, weil uns die Zukunft nicht gehört. Doch der Linie Masiero gelingt es, zu kommunizieren, weil sie die Zukunft fest mit der Vergangenheit verbindet, und weil die Vergangenheit in ihr steckt. Sie ist die Laserleuchte im braunen Wohnzimmer von Dr. Freud in der Stadt Wien zu Anfang des 20. Jahrhunderts. Alles ist da. Die Vergangenheit, die Zukunft, das Erforschen des Geistes, um das ans Licht zu bringen, was in uns steckt, was wir aber nie zuvor gesehen haben.

No es fácil mirar hacia adelante hacia el futuro y sin embargo la línea Masiero de algún modo anticipa formas de diseño que están ancladas en el pasado pero que miran hacia lo nuevo. Es una búsqueda de líneas nuevas que se entrelazan, se superponen, superan el estilo más clásico, pero sin negar nunca la continuidad y las propias raíces. Lámparas de estilo "minimalista" con todo lo que el término significa de los años 60 en adelante. Es minimalista la sobriedad de la forma que en su esencialidad sólo quiere mostrar lo que es. Pero también es minimalista todo lo que inevitablemente el objeto nos comunica y todo lo que nosotros queremos ver en el objeto. Parece minimalista la negación del arte y parece que para casi todos nosotros, con un poco de imaginación, sería es posible igualar si no fuera porque los "códigos" del minimalismo tienen una complejidad y una particularidad tales – respecto por ejemplo al lenguaje puramente figurativo - que sólo horas de lágrimas y sangre pueden generar. Y los "códigos" no se captan a primera vista, sino con la intuición de la mente, de categorías conceptuales: "cosas que vosotros humanos no podríais imaginaros". Cosas que para quien ha ahondado en los secretos del futuro no puede comunicar porque el futuro no nos pertenece. Pero la línea Masiero logra comunicar porque enlaza y une el futuro con el pasado y el pasado está dentro. Es la lámpara de láser en el tinaco marrón del Dr. Freud en la Viena de principios del siglo XX. Y hay de todo. El pasado, el futuro y el ahondar dentro de la mente para sacar a la luz lo que está dentro de nosotros, pero que nunca hemos visto.
