

The background is a deep, rich purple with lighter, almost white, flowing, organic shapes that resemble liquid or smoke. These shapes create a sense of movement and depth, with some areas appearing more saturated than others. The overall effect is dreamlike and ethereal.

It is time for a sign.

From man to man.

To think, to create, to fly upside down: back to front and front to back.

We understand it before being realized: eyes on our fingertips.

It is the sense of the undeclared, of what flows unspoken.

It is neither obvious nor expected. Nor is it demanded. It is not after or before something. It doesn't anticipate any style.

It does not nod or wink its eye at other kinds, nor does it stigmatize or blemish the others.

It is not in the middle of something, nor does it point in a direction. It doesn't divide corners.

It is a sign of time, in the course of all things new.

No restrictions.

No rest.

No surrender.

Seven colours, one project.
 Colours for sensations. Senses' inclinations.
 Seven colours for a broad view, versatile and complete while still individual and unique.
 Colours that neither describe a place nor recreate a past atmosphere.
 Colors that speak only of the present, and always.
 Warmth.
 Coolness.
 Silence.
 Musical.
 Desirable.
 Whimsical.
 Flavourfull.
 All aspects of the same multiple nature, all signs of a quest for value.
