KATANA

Katana, the new floor lamp seen for the first time at the Frankfurt Exhibition is inspired by the instruments of the ancient noble art of the Samurais, producing all the elegance and sophistication in these essential lines for a lightweight yet daring design.

Katana reveals the scrupulous design research that gives total simplicity with distinct, clean lines through the use of carbon fibre, which is a lightweight cutting edge material and gives excellent stability through complex balances: the upper arm can be directed thanks to a sophisticated articulated joint.

With its very distinct design Katana gives great personality to any surroundings, and is able to light up even large areas by adopting a special technical lighting system.

The last I Tre design gives the right balance of styling research and technical excellence which have always distinguished the brand.
